Arne Fuchs is an associate in the law firm of McDermott Will & Emery Rechtsanwälte Steuerberater LLP and is based in the Firm’s Frankfurt office. He is a member of the International Arbitration Group.

Arne focuses his practice on international dispute resolution, with an emphasis on international arbitration and public international law, including investment treaty arbitration. He has experience with disputes conducted under the ICSID Convention, ICC, HKIAC, LCIA, DIS and UNCITRAL Rules as well as pure ad-hoc arbitration. Arne also regularly acts as secretary of the tribunal in international arbitrations (treaty and commercial).

Arne was recognized as a dispute resolution specialist by GAR’s Who’s Who Legal: Arbitration – Future Leaders 2017 (forthcoming) and Juve (as part of the German dispute resolution team nominated for “Law Firm of the Year in Dispute Resolution”).

Arne studied law at the University of Augsburg and successfully completed an advanced training program in German and International Arbitration at the University of Frankfurt. He also obtained an LL.M. from the George Washington University Law School in Washington, D.C. where he focused his studies on public international law and international arbitration.

As a legal trainee, Arne worked inter alia at the German Federal Ministry of Economics and Technology’s division representing the Federal Republic of Germany before the European Courts and in the international arbitration practice group of another leading global law firm in Frankfurt am Main.

Arne is admitted to the German Bar. He is fluent in German, English and French.
