Pauline Walde is an associate in the law firm of McDermott Will & Emery Rechtsanwälte Steuerberater LLP in Frankfurt.

Pauline focuses her practice on international dispute resolution, with a special emphasis on international arbitration and public international law. She is involved in arbitration proceedings under the ICSID Convention.

Pauline obtained her Master's Degree in International and European business law from the Université Paris-Dauphine, concentrating her studies on international arbitration. She also holds a double-degree in French and Italian law from the Université Paris 1 – Panthéon Sorbonne and the Università degli Studi di Firenze.

Before joining McDermott, Pauline worked as a legal trainee for international law firms in Italy and France, where she gained practical experience in the field of international arbitration and litigation.

Pauline is admitted to the Paris bar. She is fluent in German, Italian, English and French.
