Dr. Sabine Konrad is a partner in the law firm of McDermott Will & Emery LLP and is based in the Firm's Frankfurt office. She focuses her practice on international dispute resolution, with an emphasis on commercial international arbitration and public international law.

Sabine has advised investors and governments in matters of investment protection. She also has experience representing clients in a broad range of industries, including energy and infrastructure.

In 2007, Sabine was designated by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany to the Panel of Arbitrators of the World Bank's International Center for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID). She also founded the Frankfurt International Arbitration Moot Court, the leading moot court internally in the investment treaty field. In 2005, Sabine was involved in setting up the Frankfurt International Arbitration Center, a cooperation facility of ICSID for investment treaty arbitrations in Germany.
