

Dr. Anke Meier, LL.M.

is a partner of Noerr LLP based in the Frankfurt office. She is a German and New York qualified lawyer, specializing in the field of international arbitration and cross border litigation. She has extensive experience with commercial and investment arbitration proceedings, international procedural law, including the international taking of evidence. Her practice focuses primarily on complex corporate and commercial cases. She often advises European companies with regard to U.S. litigation.

Anke studied law at the Ruhr University in Bochum and graduated from the LL.M. program of the Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution at Pepperdine University School of Law, Malibu, California. Since 2002, she has practiced in the dispute resolution practice groups of international law firms. In 2009/2010, she served as legal assistant in international arbitration to the Honorable Charles N. Brower. Today, she represents clients in arbitration proceedings and serves as arbitrator.

*****